Serious fun with dramatic results!

Children have incredible imaginations and are natural creators. At Quest Theatre we have a strong desire to encourage and develop this innate creative sensibility in children so that they may grow up to be thoughtful, confident, and compassionate adults. Some may find a career in the arts, some may not, but we believe creativity, confidence, and original thinking serve us all, in whatever profession we may find ourselves. Our instructors are highly skilled experts, working in professional theatre and in the school system. They are all Captains of Creativity, Commanders of Imagination, and Storytelling Masters. You can't blame us if your child gets bitten by the acting bug and wants to enter into a career in the arts, sometimes we have that affect on people, but know that all the skills they learn in our Theatre School or in our Summer Drama Camps will assist them in whatever they may choose to be. Have fun, be creative, and grow!
