FALL TOUR

BIG SISTER, LITTLE BROTHER

Written by Mike Kenny
Based on the story "the Emperor's New Clothes" by Hans Christian Anderson

On Tour October 18 – December 5, 2010

Follow our hapless duo Rita and Archie who are on "the run" after being discovered as the masterminds behind the myth of the Emperor's New Clothes.

Suitcases become castles, objects are transformed and colorful characters come to life as the siblings re-enact their mischievous adventure.

This humorous play written by award winning British playwright Mike Kenny examines the uniquely special (sometimes frustrating) bond between a brother and sister.

BIG SISTER, LITTLE BROTHER is a fast-paced, imaginative, funny, and heart-warming tale appropriate for grades K - 6.

Play Themes: Honesty, Bullying, Sibling Rivalry, Family and Adventure

WINTER TOUR

SHOES OF SAND

Written by Suzanne LeBeau
Translator John Van Burek

On Tour February 7 – April 3, 2011

Written by internationally acclaimed, Governor General award winning playwright Suzanne LeBeau and translated by John Van Burek, this enchanting play is about reaching beyond our fears, exploring the world in which we live and celebrating our unique place in the world.

Élise and Léo are brother and sister. They have come to fear the outside world and have conditioned themselves to adhere to a rigid schedule dictated by the sand in the hourglass.

One day they accidentally let their flying shoes escape out the front door. The siblings are forced to venture into the unknown and joyfully discover the simple wonders the world has to offer.

SHOES OF SAND is a poetic story told imaginatively through puppetry and creative staging and is appropriate for grades K-6.

Play Themes: Overcoming Fear, Leadership, Family and Exploration.

* Show is subject to final approval of performance rights.
